

From north twenty six degrees east thirty perches then north thirty four degrees and thirty minutes east fifty three perches then south eighty five degrees east thirty four perches till it intersects the first line of Baynards then with the same reversed north twenty seven degrees west sixty perches to the end of the first line of Arnolds discovery then bounded with said land north eighty seven degrees west forty four perches then north forty two degrees west thirty perches and south fifty three degrees west twenty six perches and south fifteen degrees east fifty eight perches then south twenty seven degrees west thirty perches and south ten degrees west forty perches and from thence with a straight line to the aforesaid place of beginning containing and laid out for eighteen acres of land more or less according to the certificate of survey thereof taken and returned into the land office bearing date the fifth day of March one thousand and ninety five and there remaining; together with all rights profits benefits and privileges thereto belonging To Have and to hold the same unto him the said James Clements his heirs and assigns forever. Given under the great seal of The State of Maryland this twelfth day of May one thousand and ninety eight. Witness The Honourable Alexander Contee Hanson Esquire Chancellor.

In Henry  A. Hanson Esq.

James Clements his Patent 6 acres. The State of Maryland etc. Know Ye That Whereas James Clements of Disappointment (second part) Caroline county had laid out and surveyed for him a tract of land containing six acres called Disappointment, distinguished as the second part, lying in the county aforesaid by virtue of a special warrant for thirty acres obtained by him out of the eastern shore land office the third day of March one thousand and ninety five as appears by the certificate thereof returned to the western shore land office and he having fully compounded for the said land with the treasurer of the western shore, The State of Maryland doth therefore hereby grant unto the said James Clements the said tract of land called Disappointment, distinguished as aforesaid as the second part, lying in Caroline county aforesaid. Beginning at the end of the seventh line of Baynards Conspen and running from thence with the eighth line of the same south sixty three degrees east forty two perches to the end thereof, and thence bounding with the said Baynards Conspen north sixteen degrees west seven perches then north twenty two degrees east ten perches then north twenty seven degrees west thirty perches till it intersects the second line of Loggolds then with the same reversed south sixty three degrees west thirty four and a half perches till it intersects the said seventh line of Baynards Conspen and from thence with a straight line to the aforesaid place of beginning containing and laid out for six acres of land more or less, according to the certificate of survey thereof taken and returned into the land office bearing date the fifth day of March one thousand and ninety five and there remaining; together with all rights profits benefits and privileges thereto belonging. To Have and to hold the same unto him the said James Clements his heirs and assigns forever.

Given under the great seal of The State of Maryland this twelfth day of May one thousand and ninety eight. Witness The Honourable Alexander Contee Hanson Esquire Chancellor.

In Henry  A. Hanson Esq.

Israel Coe his Patent 57 acres. The State of Maryland etc. Know Ye That Whereas Israel Coe of Harford county had laid out and surveyed for him a tract or parcel of land called Snow Hill lying in the county aforesaid and containing fifty seven acres by virtue of a special warrant for twenty five acres obtained by him out of the western shore land office the sixteenth day of May one thousand and ninety six as appears, and he having fully compounded for the said land by the application of a warrant, and having paid to the treasurer of the western shore the sum of seven shillings and six pence for some improvements on the same, according to law, The State of Maryland doth therefore hereby grant unto the said Israel Coe the said tract or parcel of land called Snow Hill lying in Harford county aforesaid. Beginning at the beginning of a tract called Guffey's Roman hill Prospect being a pile of stones near the head of a hollow north sixteen degrees west three perches and six tenths of a perch from a white oak sapling now standing and running thence with and bounding on said land the two following lines to wit south fifty one degrees east sixty four perches north forty three degrees east twenty two perches then south sixty four degrees east thirty four perches to the end of the south sixty four degrees east thirty four perches then with a straight line to a bounded black oak south forty nine degrees east twenty eight perches south twenty seven degrees west thirty eight perches to a bounded black oak south forty nine degrees east twenty eight perches south twenty seven degrees and thirty minutes west thirty seven perches north thirty four degrees west sixty seven perches to a bounded white oak standing on the south side of a hill south fifty five degrees west twenty four perches south nine degrees east seventy perches to a bounded spruce oak the land boundary of said land north eighty degrees east forty three perches to a rock the beginning of said Guffey's Roman hill Prospect north twenty nine degrees east sixty four perches then south fifty four degrees east twenty seven perches to a rock the beginning of a tract surveyed for Stephen Onion called The elledge then with and bounding on said land the six following lines to wit north west by west twenty four perches south twenty five degrees and forty five minutes west sixty four perches south fifty degrees and forty five minutes west thirty perches south eighty five degrees and forty five minutes west sixty eight perches south sixty degrees and forty five minutes west sixty perches south forty degrees and forty five minutes west sixty four perches with it intersects a tract called James's beginning then north eighty eight degrees and forty five minutes west fifty four perches to a stone placed by commission at the end of the second line of a tract called Johns beginning then north forty seven degrees and thirty minutes east fifty three perches and a half a perch to a stone marked I C on the east side of a branch then north twenty five degrees west six and a half perches to the end of the south twenty five degrees east sixty two perches line of Guffey's Roman hill Prospect aforesaid then with and bounding on said land the three following lines to wit north sixty seven degrees east eighty perches north eighty six degrees east thirty four perches and then with a straight line to the said beginning containing fifty seven acres more or less.

or less, according to the certificate of survey hereof taken and returned into the land office bearing date the twenty sixth day of november seventeen hundred and ninety six and there remaining; together with all rights profits benefits and purlieus thereto belonging. To have and to hold the same unto him the said Israel Cox his heirs and assigns forever. Given under the great seal of the State of Maryland this fourteenth day of may seventeen hundred and ninety eight. Witness the honorable Alexander Contee Hanson esquire Chancellor.

J^r: Henry ^{The Great Seal of the State of Maryland} Hanson Esq^r.

John Barclay Esq^r: his Patent of the State of Maryland of Now Ye That whereas John Barclay esquire 892 acres. The Grove } of Harford County on the eleventh day of August seventeen hundred and ninety six obtained out of the meekern shire land office a special warrant to recover a tract of land lying in the County aforesaid called The Grove originally on the thirteenth day of June seventeen hundred and thirty four granted William Smith for two hundred and ten acres, and a tract called The Deer Park, with liberty of correcting errors and adding the contiguous vacancies therein pursuant whereof recovery was made for him of only the tract called The Grove a certificate whereof was returned by which it appeared the said land contained only two hundred and six acres and three quarters of an acre to which there was added one hundred and eighty five acres and one quarter of an acre of vacant land, and he having fully compromised for the same after allowance made for deficiency in the original, by application of warrant, and payment to the recoverer, and for the improvements thereon, according to law, The State of Maryland doth hereby grant and confirm unto the said John Barclay esquire the land resumed as aforesaid with the vacancy added reduced into one entire tract and called The Grove Enlarged lying in Harford County aforesaid. Beginning at a large stone set up by commission near the head of a spring which runs into the north side of head creek marked I.B.N^o: 1. at the beginning of the original survey called The Grove and running thence bounding on the original survey as settled by commission the seven following courses viz: north sixty nine degrees and a quarter west thirty five perches to a stone marked I.B.N^o: 2. north fifty four degrees and a quarter west one hundred perches to a stone marked I.B.N^o: 3. north five degrees and three quarters east twenty eight perches to a stone marked I.B.N^o: 4. north forty four degrees and a quarter west forty perches to a stone marked I.B.N^o: 5. north twenty five degrees and three quarters east forty eight perches to a stone marked I.B.N^o: 6. north fifty five degrees and three quarters east one hundred perches to a stone marked I.B.N^o: 7. north eighty five degrees and three quarters east one hundred and forty perches to a stone marked I.B.N^o: 8. thence bounding on the given line of said land south twenty three degrees and a half west eighty seven perches thence south twenty four degrees east thirteen perches to a bounded chestnut on the north side of the said Barclays spring thence south sixty four degrees east eleven perches north eighty four degrees east twenty four perches south fifty three degrees east nine perches south eighty nine degrees east fourteen perches to a bounded spanish oak thence north four degrees east fifty five perches north fifty five degrees east fifteen perches north eleven degrees east twenty perches to a bounded spanish oak in a small hollow thence north fifty four degrees and a half east twenty nine perches and three quarters to a bounded white oak sapling by the side of a small branch thence south forty two degrees and a quarter east nine perches and a half north fifty seven degrees and a half east thirty perches to a bounded spanish oak on the south side of a hill thence south forty two degrees east twenty four perches east twenty perches to a bounded spanish oak thence north eight degrees east fifty seven perches to a bounded water oak thence north twenty eight degrees east eleven perches to two bounded white oaks on the side of a hill thence north sixty five degrees east twenty one perches to a bounded white oak thence south forty four degrees east thirty perches a half south twenty three degrees and a half east twelve perches to two bounded chestnuts on the side of a hill thence south twenty eight degrees west thirty two perches south thirty seven degrees west fifty six perches to a stone thence south fifty one degrees west twenty seven perches and a half to a stone thence south eighty nine degrees west fifty six perches to a bounded water oak thence south eight degrees west forty three perches and a half perches to a bounded chestnut sapling on the side of a hill thence north twenty eight degrees a half east sixty seven perches a half south thirty one degrees east twenty perches to a bounded white oak the beginning tree of a tract of land called Williams Delight thence north fifty three degrees east twenty perches to two bounded spanish oaks on the side of a hill near a rock stone thence south thirteen degrees and a half west ten perches and a half south thirty four degrees west twenty six perches south twenty seven degrees west forty perches south twenty three degrees west twelve perches to a bounded black oak of Reeves Enlargement thence south forty three degrees and a quarter west twenty seven perches to a bounded white oak sapling thence north eleven degrees and a quarter west twenty seven perches and a half south eighty seven degrees west thirty two perches to a bounded black oak sapling marked with the letter R. thence south nine degrees west twenty perches to the third line of a tract of land called Jupes Roman hill prospect thence bounding on said line north sixty nine degrees west fifty five perches to the end thereof thence south twenty five degrees west fifty six perches south thirty one degrees and three quarters west fifty one perches to the given line of the original survey and thence by a straight line to the beginning containing and laid out for three hundred and ninety two acres more or less, according to the certificate of survey hereof taken and returned into the land office bearing date the twenty second day of June seventeen hundred and ninety seven and there remaining together