HEADLINE: Schaefer leaves on penultimate trip

BODY:

Gov. William Donald Schaefer left yesterday for his 13th - and next-to-last - foreign trade mission.

Mr. Schaefer will visit with business leaders in France, Germany and England after spending four days taking part in the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the invasion of Normandy.

The governor said he will visit business leaders who already have operations in Maryland as well as some potential investors.

Mr. Schaefer has visited 25 countries in Europe, Asia, North America and the Pacific since his first trip to Europe and the Soviet Union in 1987.
