Hughes Will Travel To China in April

ANNAPOLIS, Nov. 13 (UPI)—Gov. Harry Hughes has decided to leave on his trade mission to China on April 24, a Hughes aide said today.

Joseph M. Coale III, the executive aide planning the China trip, said Hughes' 12-member delegation will be "pretty evenly matched" between government and private industry representatives.

Hughes is believed to have invited executives of the Black Decker Tool Co., Johns Hopkins University and Bethlehem Steel, among others.
