Mr. & Mrs. Asbury Harris

Please accept my deepest sympathy in the irreparable loss you have sustained in the death of your only son, Marcellus, a bright boy cut down in the flower of youth, but God has a purpose in everything, His ways are past finding out, but some day some time, we'll understand.

May God in His tender mercies comfort and guide you, until time may assuage your grief. are the earnest wishes of his teacher,

Sincerely yours,

M. Priscilla Waters

Whereas God in His Allwise Providence, has seen fit to call from earth to heaven our beloved pupil and schoolmate, Marcellus Harris, we the teacher and pupils of Skidmore Public School, do hereby express our appreciation of his worth to us in the following resolutions.

Another bright flower has been plucked from earth's garden and transplanted to bloom afresh and shed its fragrance in the garden of the Lord,

Sleep on Marcellus, and take thy rest, Lay down thy head upon the Saviour's breast, We loved thee well but Jesus loved thee best, Sleep on, sleep on, sleep on.

Therefore be it resolved that in the death of Marcellus Harris, our school has suffered a great loss; a regular attendant, a bright pupil, one always ready and anxious to do whatever he could for his school, his place can not be easily filled.

Resolved, that we emulate his devotion to his school and to his studies, and when weary and worn, and duties become irksome, may we take a retrospective view, and be encouraged to go forward by the example set us, by him whose earthly life was so short, yet so full.

Be it further resolved that we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy, and in this hour of grief and anguish, may we quote the beautiful words of Him who doeth all things well, "Lo I am with you always even unto the end of the world" and we pray God that in this quotation they may find solace to help them bear the burden of their untimely loss.

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and a copy spread upon the records of the school.

Respectfully submitted

M. Priscilla Waters,
Prin. Skidmore School
