

A CASE OF POISONING.—The Eastern (Md.) Star says that Miss Mary Reed and two other members of her family, residing near Greensborough, Caroline county, was poisoned one day last week, by a negro woman employed as a cook in the family, by drugging the coffee with arsenic. Miss Reed has since died, and the others are not expected to live. The negro has been arrested and placed in Denton jail.