

50 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber's farm, near the Sugar-Loaf mountain, in Montgomery county, Maryland, a

Negro man named George,

Who calls himself George Smith,

He may possibly change his name. He left home on the night of the 2d instant—he is about 50 years of age, full six feet high, large and proportionately made, very black, has red eyes, thick lips, has a very coarse voice, speaks proper and very distinctly, and is a sensible fellow; professes to be religious, and has attempted at times to exhort or preach. He had on and took with him three shirts, two of Osnaburg and one of white cotton, one blue cloth and a summer coat, three waistcoats, one a Marseilles with blue stripes, three pair of pantaloons, one of brown cloth, one striped cotton, and a pair of Osnaburg pieced and not very well made, and a black fur hat.

The subscriber will give for apprehending said negro $20 if taken twenty miles from home; if fifty miles $30; if beyond fifty miles $50, provided he is secured in any jail so that he gets him again, and will pay all reasonable charges if brought home.

WILLIAM DARNE.
