

COST OF TRIAL.—We see, by a statement published in the Eastern (Md.) Star, that the costs of the trial of Wark & Bailey, for a dice game to abscond from their owners, and which was tried in Queen Anne's county court, amount to the sum of one thousand ninety-four dollars and ninety-seven cents. The tax-payers of Talbot have to foot the bill.