

FIRE.—On Tuesday morning week, about three o'clock, the fodder house of Hugh Wallis, Esq. about two miles from Chestertown, Md., was destroyed by fire, and with it the entire crop of corn from one field, estimated at one hundred and fifty barrels. It is supposed to have been set on fire.