
DEATH BY LIGHTNING.—During a thunder storm one night last week, three servants (two women and one child) belonging to Mr. John Jones, of N., living near Rockville, Md., were instantly killed by lightning while comfortably seated by the fire in their quarters.
