

RANAWAY.

ON SUNDAY MORNING LAST, a colored Man, named JOHNSON HORNEY, aged about twenty four years, about five feet 6 or 7 inches high—has a scar on his right thumb, from which the bone has been taken, produced by a fellen, his ears bored—had a variety of Clothes, among which are a black Pea-coat, blue cloth close bodied Coat, two Osnaburg Shirts, two pair of Tow Trowsers, black fur Hat and Jefferson Boots. A reward of Twenty Dollars will be given for him if taken up and secured in jail, or delivered to the subscriber—it is supposed he is now in Baltimore, or was a day or two since.

WILLIAM CAULK,

Bay Side, Talbot Co. near St. Michael's.
