

William H. Howard Colored Lawyer To Be Buried Tomorrow

William H. Howard, an attorney-at-law and member of a highly respected colored family of Annapolis, died on Wednesday at his home here. He was the son of Eliza Howard and is survived by his mother and wife, Amanda Howard.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the funeral parlor of John M. Taylor, with interment in Brewer Hill cemetery.