

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber, near the Governor's Bridge, Prince George's county, on the 7th March, negro Sam. He is about 18 years old, black, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, with remarkably small ears, and stoops and limps a little in his walk; he has a step father living near Annapolis, by the name of Boston. And on the 21st inst. negro Fielder, who is a dark mulatto, about 30 years old, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, nose very flat, mild in his manner, and polite when spoken to. He was purchased of the estate of John Divall, near the Governor's Bridge, Anne Arundel county, and has a brother belonging to Dr. Stockett, of Elkridge, and one in Baltimore, and also a free wife living with a Mr. Joseph Chaney, of Anne Arundel county.

Their clothing is unknown, except Fielder's — his summer clothing is of hempen lincen stuff.

The above reward will be given for both of them, or 50 dollars for either; if secured in any jail so that the owner gets them again.

RICHARD DUCKETT.
