THERE is at the plantation of the ſubſcriber, living on the head of South River, taken up as a ſtray, a dark bay HORSE, about ſeven or eight years old, about fourteen hands and an half high, ſhod behind, with a hanging main and ſwitch tail, trots and gallops. The owner may have him again, by proving property and paying charges.

1 JOSEPH SELBY.

Montgomery county, October 30, 1791.

WHEREAS my creditors are preſſing on me and will not give me an opportunity of making my collections to diſcharge my juſt debts, and now have me in confinement, I take this method of informing them that I intend giving up my property to truſtees, together with all my accounts, and petition the next general aſſembly to be releaſed from confinement.

WALTER SMITH.

NEW LINE.

ANNAPOLIS, EASTON, and PHILADELPHIA,

Water and Land STAGES,

Via CÆCIL COURT HOUSE & NEWCASTLE.

THE Subſcribers, (Proprietors of the Philadelphia and Baltimore New Line) very reſpectfully inform the inhabitants of this city and its vicinity, they intend to eſtabliſh a communication from this place direct to Philadelphia, for the conveyance of freight and paſſengers, to commence running the 29th inſtant, by the following route:—A packet will leave Philadelphia every Monday morning for Newcaſtle, on its arrival the ſtage immediately conveys the paſſengers to Cæcil Court Houſe, where the packet waits their arrival, and proceeds direct for Annapolis and Eaſton, and touches at Annapolis on her return. The peculiar advantages of this tour, in point of expedition, will be obvious to every traveller going to the northward, it being certain this route can be performed in leſs time than by land. The proprietors ſolicit the patronage of the public, aſſuring them every exertion ſhall be uſed to render this line pleaſing, agreeable and expeditious. The variableneſs of the winds renders the day of the packet's return from Eaſton rather uncertain; but it is expected ſhe will leave this place early every Sunday morning. Paſſengers, and ſhippers that have freight to forward, are requeſted to leave their names at the Printers, who will inſtruct the captain to wait upon them and inform the hour of departure.

Annapolis, Auguſt 19, 1791.

JOHN HYDE,

Boot and Shoe-maker,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, and his friends in particular, that he carries on the tanning and currying buſineſs at the yard lately occupied by Mr. John Adam Bayer, where he buys all kinds of hides, or tans one half for the other, as may be moſt convenient for thoſe who have them to diſpoſe of; he alſo informs the public, that he is determined to ſell leather as low as it can be purchaſed in Baltimore, and hopes by his attention and punctuality to merit the cuſtom of thoſe who may pleaſe to favour him with their commands.

N. B. He ſtill carries on the boot and ſhoe-making buſineſs, in Conduit-ſtreet, oppoſite Mr. George Mann's new building, where he makes all kinds of boots and ſhoes in the neateſt manner, on the ſhorteſt notice, and moſt reaſonable terms.

Annapolis, September 20, 1791. 5

FOR SALE,

THAT beautiful SEAT or LOT of LAND, the place of reſidence of the late Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer, Eſquire, known by the name of STEPNEY, lying in Anne-Arundel county, within one mile of South river ferry, containing 835 acres. The improvements on this valuable farm are remarkably good, and ſeveral orchards of excellent fruit, from which may be made in a favourable year 15,000 gallons of cider, equal, if not ſuperior, to any in the ſtate.

——ALSO,——

A ſmall TRACT of LAND, binding on South river, nearly adjoining the above, containing 229 acres, on which is an orchard of choice fruit, a convenient and comfortable dwelling houſe, a large barn, quite new, with other neceſſary out-houſes. A more particular deſcription of the above lands is conſidered unneceſſary, as it is preſumed thoſe diſpoſed to purchaſe, will previouſly view them.

The two tracts will be ſold together, or ſeparately, as may be moſt convenient to the purchaſers, and poſſeſſion given on the firſt day of January next, with permiſſion to ſow fall grain.

Any perſon inclinable to purchaſe, may know the terms, which will be made eaſy, by applying to
