

MURDER OF CRUELTY.—An inquest was held in Caroline county on Thursday last a week, on the body of a negro woman, the property of John L. M'Combs, of Caroline, and the jury rendered a verdict that she died in consequence of cruelty and mal-treatment by her master. He had absconded, but was pursued, caught in Kent co., Md., and brought back to Denton, where he was committed to jail.