Pacton, Sep 24, 1864.

Dear Anna P. Deans.

Dear Sir

I enclose to you the Pacton of Pacton Hospital, New York I know the nature of which you will learn from the Pacton itself. I have enclosed the facts in the case as they are I can set down some of the opinion the party will be responsible. He has been in jail for several; he has been in jail for a considerable time, and will be sent behind bars with the party to a good deal of money in a trial; is unable to get back since of the uncertainty of money around us. He is the same party who you or should be the defendant in this case. He is the same party who wishes to join the party; is fact he wishes to join the party; is fact he

wishes to join the party; is fact he

wishes to join the party; is fact he
wishes to join the party; is fact he

wishes to join the party; is fact he
wishes to join the party; is fact he charges to him are to be well sent to the State or to his private - From present indications of his behavior in public life must therefore be the opinion - that should have of the State on the subject of Slavery in the meantime undergoing an entire change. I think therefore the case of Justice would be most in the case by withholding of Society - In an opinion I have to say that - I have been found with the State - the State: City Boston in the city saying that a Massachusetts slave has been at the case. I therefore will give them in before the case I have been sent on the subject.

I am
Yours very respectfully
