

JOSEPH CHAIN,

Hair-Dresser,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints the citizens of Easton, and the public generally, that he has removed his

BARBER'S SHOP

From the old stand opposite the Fountain Inn tavern, to the house formerly occupied by Mr. Robert Spencer, as a Store, two doors south of the Bank, adjoining the shop of capt. Benjamin Willmott, and opposite Mr. Groome's new row-- where he intends carrying on his business in its various branches, and hopes, by his attention, to continue to merit the patronage of his old yearly customers.

Travelling gentlemen will, as usual, be waited upon at his shop, or elsewhere, with prompt attention.

Easton, January 14