

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living in Talbot county, Md. on Saturday evening last, the 1st of November, instant, a negro woman by the name of LEAR, about 19 or 20 years of age, of a yellowish complexion, low and well made, very handsome for a negro, with a good set of teeth; and as she has been brought up in the house her manners are pleasing, and she is an excellent servant. She took with her a variety of clothes, among which are two striped dimity dresses, (white) one broad and the other narrow stripe— one changeable silk dress, one new cross-barred callico ditto, two bonnets, one black and the other white silk, with a number of other clothes not known; with a variety of bed clothes. She is supposed to be in company with her husband JOSEPH CHAINE, an East Indian, who speaks French; and has for some time resided in Easton. It is probable she has made for the Delaware state, where she has a mother living near the line of Maryland. The above reward will be given if taken up out of the state; and ten dollars if taken up in the state, with reasonable charges if brought home to

SOLOMON LOWE.
