

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away, from the Subscriber, living in Sussex County, Delaware State, a Negro MAN, named SAM; he is six feet one or two inches high, he has a long visage, a thick hanging lip, and remarkable large feet, he is about thirty years of age. Had on and took with him, when he went off, a white long wool-len jacket almost new, another of the same kind of cloth, (black) a great deal worn, both of them twill'd, a pair of striped linsleywoolsey trousers twill'd, the stripes cross-ways; he has likewise, a white cloth un-der jacket, made large for him, by being pieced in the back, and a felt hat. Whoever takes up the said Runaway, and secures him in any county gaol, so that I can get him again, or brings him home, shall have the above Reward.

April 1, 1783.

JOHN TENNENT.