

RAN AWAY, from the subscriber, in the Forks of Gunpowder, in Baltimore County, on the Long-Green Run, a Negro Lad, named CHARLES, about nineteen years of age, a smart likely young fellow, with a scar over one of his eyes, and a stammering in his speech; had on, when he went away, his working clothes, to wit, one blue fearnought jacket, one red cloth waistcoat, a pair of kersey breeches, a half worn hat, one oznaburg shirt, and old shoes and stockings. Whoever takes up and secures the said Negro, and returns him to his Overseer, on the premises, shall have THREE POUNDS Reward, paid by AQUILA HALL.

May 17. 1788.