

Two hundred dollars reward.

RAN away from the subscriber some time in March last, a negro girl by the name of MILL, who did belong to the late John Barrow, deceased; about seventeen years of age, lively, and of a delicate make. Also, went off about the first of June last, a negro man named BILL, formerly the property of Henrietta Bewley, about twenty-five or twenty-six years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, well made, of an orderly and submissive deportment. It is presumed that the clothing which the above negroes had on, when they absconded, is needless to be described from the great length of time that has since elapsed.— The above reward or in proportion for either of them, will be given to any person securing the said runaways so that the subscriber may get them again, and reasonable expenses paid if brought home.
