

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on Monday 21st instant, a negro man named GOVEL, twenty-two years of age, about five feet and an half high, well set, with square shoulders, large round face, and flat nose; he is an intelligent sensible fellow, and when sharply spoken to, puts on the appearance of fullness and moroseness, with an insolent but downward look; had on when he went away, a linsay-woolsey over jacket, a pretty good wool hat, old grey cloth trousers, and white yarn stockings; however, he may have changed his dress, as he took with him a pair of new grey cloth trousers, a white shirt, and nankeen over jacket, with other clothes unknown; he has a small notch cut in one of his ears, but without minute examination will not be discovered, as it is almost grown out. Whoever takes up said servant and secures him so that the subscriber may get him, shall receive the above reward, if taken out of the county, if in it, ten dollars.
