

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY on the 13th of April last, from the subscriber, living in Somerset county, near Princess Anne, a likely young negro man named DANIEL, aged twenty years, about five feet six or eight inches high, of a bright yellow complexion, and has a considerable impediment in his speech. He had on when he went away a brown long coat, with metal buttons, blue and white linen pantaloons and vest of the same, boots, and took with him sundry other clothing. His linen on examination will probably be found marked A. E. J. his cravats the same or W. J. He has been bred a waiter, and will, no doubt, offer himself in that character.— Whoever will apprehend said boy out of the county, shall receive the above reward, twenty dollars if taken in the county, or secured in any jail so that I get him again.

WILLIAM JONES

May 14, 1803.