

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Nottingham, in Prince George's County, Md. in the month of June, 1821, a negro boy, who calls himself HANIBAL LEE; he is of a dark copper colour, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and about 17 years old; the veins of his forehead are large, and pointing at the upper part of the nose, resemble the letter V; he is polite and humble in his deportment and to his answers; yes or no, usually adds the words—indeed, sir. He may have gone to Baltimore, as he has relations there; but I rather think he is skulking about Georgetown or the City of Washington. I will give the above reward to any person who will secure him so that I get him again.

BENJAMIN B. MACKALL.

The Baltimore Patriot will insert the above advertisement twice a week, for four weeks, and forward account as above.

jan 23—2446w