

Forty Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, on Monday night, March 21st, 1825, a negro boy, named JACK, (formerly the property of Robert Wyvell, deceased, who lived near New Market) aged about 18 years, yellow complexion, talks fast, and can tell a very plausible story, dress a lie and give it a good appearance; he has followed the water several years, and has been in the coasting business: He is spare made, about five feet high, and had on when he went away, a kersey jacket and trowsers, tow linen shirt, yarn stockings and old shoes. Any person that will apprehend said boy, and deliver him to the subscriber, shall receive a reward of ten dollars if out of the county, twenty dollars if out of the state, and forty dollars to be paid on the delivery of said boy, to LEVIN KEENE.

State of Maryland, Eastern Shore, Dorchester c'ty, head of Hongor river.

N. B. All persons are forbid harboring or taking said boy on board of any vessel.
