

Fifty Dollars Reward.

Ran away in January last, a negro man named SAM, about twenty years of age well made, of a very dark complexion, nearly black; he is about 6 feet high, of a pleasant countenance when spoken to. He took with him a suit of dark country made cloth; his other clothing not recollected. The above reward will be paid for apprehending and bringing said negro to the subscriber, if taken out of the state, or thirty dollars if taken in the state.
