

One hundred dollars reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on Friday the 19th of May, a negro man named HENRY, 20 years old, not very black, about five feet ten inches high, broad face with high cheek bones and large size; when spoken to has a considerable impediment in his speech—the clothes he has with him are not known—Is supposed to have gone into Oxford Neck, or Dorchester county, from the circumstance of a small batteaux having been taken off the same night from the adjoining farm.

ALSO—Ranaway on Sunday night the 21st May, a negro man named BILL—he is known in the neighborhood by the name of BILL BUCK but he calls himself WILL HAMMOND; very quick in his motions, very black, about five feet seven inches high, he is very talkative, carried with him one suit of old kersey clothes, a blue cloth coat, supposed to have H. L. Edmondson written on the lining of the sleeve, a pair of striped cassimere pantaloons, 2 pair of shoes, and 12 or 15 lbs. of bacon. He is a half brother to Henry, and the probability is, they are together. Whoever shall take the above mentioned negroes, or either of them and secure them in Easton goal, so that I get them again, shall receive fifty dollars for each of them
