

100 DOLLARS REWARD.—Ranaway from the subscriber, living in Cambridge on the 16th of last December, a negro man named CHARLES SMITH.—The said negro was hired during the last year to Mr Jacob Pattison, on Taylor's Island, where, in consequence of attachments there formed, it is believed he now lurks. Charles, is about 25 years of age, above the ordinary size, and of robust appearance—He has a scar on the side of his mouth, occasioned by a burn, which is so notable a mark as to render it impossible not to be observed. As circumstances render it probable that he has fled to Baltimore, the subscriber is induced to offer a reward of 40 dollars for his apprehension in this county—a reward of 75 dollars if taken out of the state and deposited in some jail whereby she gets him.
