

$100 Reward.

RANAWAY, some time in the early part of January last, a Negro Man named DANIEL, belonging to James Wright's estate.

Daniel is about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches in height, rather stout made, somewhat knock-kneed, rather a dark Mulatto, and about 28 years of age. His clothing was a blue camblet Cloak, a blue cloth Coat, a fur Hat, a new suit of blue Country Kersey, with an old suit of blue and white striped Kersey. What he took with him, or wore away, of the above clothing, I cannot tell. Should Daniel be apprehended in the county, and secured so that I get him again, $50 reward will be given—if taken out of the county and in the state, $75 will be given, if secured so that I get him again—if taken out of the state of Maryland, and secured in jail so that I get him again, the above reward will be given.

MARTIN L. WRIGHT,

Adm'r. of James Wright, dec'd.

Cambridge, Dor. Co., E. S. Md., }

April 28, 1832. }

6w

The Delaware Journal is requested to insert the above six times, mark price, and charge the Cambridge Chronicle office.