

$50 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the schooner Lady Washington, lying at Dugan's wharf, Baltimore, on Thursday night, the 9th inst., a negro man named Jacob, about 27 years of age, about 5 feet 11 inches high, stout, has a mark on the lid of his left eye occasioned by a hurt received while young, is something of a mahogany color and slow of speech. When he absconded he took from the birth of the captain fifty dollars in silver, in a bag. He is supposed to be still in the city. A reward of thirty dollars will be given for his apprehension if taken in the state; or if taken out of the state the above reward of fifty dollars; provided he be secured in jail so that we get him again.

FRANCIS B. C. TURPIN,
JACOB C. WILSON,

Adm's. of Francis Turpin, dec'd.

Feb. 25 if