

$50 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, (living in Somerset county, Maryland,) on Monday morning, the 3rd day of Dec. inst., a negro MAN, named JACK. It is supposed he will endeavour to make his way for Baltimore, as he has a free woman (in keeping, as a wife) by the name of Ditch Bank Ibbby. Ibbby has a mother and sister gone to Liberia; and Ibbby, herself, started down to the vessel with her goods, to go on board with her mother and sister, but was persuaded by her husband and others of her own color not to go, and returned home again. It is supposed they concluded to endeavor to get off together. Jack is from 29 to 30 years of age, of a dark complexion, close built, rather inclining to be chunky, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has a scar on his left cheek, near the corner of his eye, and if I remember aright, he also has lost the little toe of his left foot. His clothing, that he had on, was a Virginia or country cloth jacket and trowsers, blue cloth waistcoat. His jacket and trowsers was striped in the warp with purple and white, and filled in with white.—Whoever takes up said negro Jack and secures him in jail, or brings him to me, I will pay the above reward.

CALEB KENNERLY.

dec 20

d&tif