

WAS COMMITTED, to the jail of Baltimore city and county, on the 14th day of August, 1833, by George S. Eichelberger, Esq., a justice of the peace in and for the city of Baltimore, as a runaway, a colored man who calls himself MAJOR LODINE; says he was born free and was raised by his father, who did live about 16 miles beyond Smyrna in the state of Delaware, but was committed as the slave of Capt. Henry Sullivan of Vienna, Maryland. Said colored man is about 20 years of age, 5 feet 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches high; no perceptible marks; had on when committed, a black bombazett roundabout, cotton shirt, grey cassinet pantaloon, black fur hat and pair of lace boots.

The owner of the above described colored man, is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be discharged according to law.

D. W. HUDSON, Warden
Baltimore city and county jail.
