

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

LAN away from the subscriber, residing near Nottingham, Prince George's County, Maryland, on the 15th June, negro William Hanson Lee, who calls himself HANSON. He is twenty-eight years of age, 5 feet in height, of a yellowish brown complexion, thin visage, and pleasant countenance. No especial marks on his person are recollected. His clothing is not recollected except two suits of white twilled cotton. Fifty dollars will be paid for his apprehension if taken within this county or the District of Columbia, and the above reward if taken elsewhere, and in each case secured so that I get him again.

FIELDER BOWIE,

Near Nottingham, Prince George's County, Md.

July 3—