

$300 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living in Dorchester county, Maryland, on the night of Tuesday, the 22d of September last, a negro man, named about thirty years old, five feet six or eight inches high, well made and very black, with a scar on his breast, occasioned by a burn. He can read, write and cipher, and is a very shrewd fellow. He is, also, a first rate sawyer, and can do rough carpenter's work. The above reward of three hundred dollars will be paid for the apprehension of the aforesaid Harry, should he be taken out of the State; or two hundred and fifty dollars, if in the State and out of the county; or two hundred dollars, if in the county—provided he be delivered to the undersigned, or secured so that he gets him again.

HARRY HUMANN,

WILLIAM W. HANDLEY,

Adm'r. of Handy Handley.
