

$100 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on Friday night last, 29th inst., negro man CYRUS, about forty-five years of age, five feet eight or ten inches high, of dark complexion, has a high forehead, is partly grey, with grey whiskers; he walks lame and his feet appear deformed. He had on a mixed grey cassinett suit; he also carried along with him two red flannel shirts and striped blue kersey pantaloons. I will give twenty-five dollars if apprehended in the county, fifty dollars if out of the county, and one hundred dollars if out of the State of Maryland. The slave is to be securely lodged in the Cambridge Jail, and the above reward will be paid so soon as the sale of the negro is effected.

HENRY M. ROBERTSON.

Cambridge, May 2d.
