

$400 REWARD.—Runaway from the subscriber, residing in Dorchester county, Eastern Shore of Maryland, on Saturday night last, (20th,) the following named Negro men, to wit: CHARLES, aged about 24 years, is about 6 feet 1 or 2 inches high, well formed and likely. He is of a dark chesnut color, is civil when spoken to, and has a scar on the left jaw, received from a blow. WILLIAM, aged about 23 years, five feet 6 or 7 inches high, and of a light chesnut color. He is square built and muscular—is civil when spoken to, and is believed to have scars on his nose and one of his cheeks, as he received blows on them, recently in a frolic. JAMES, (a brother to William,) aged '21 or 22 years, 5 feet four or five inches high and stout, with a bright chesnut complexion. He is civil when spoken to, has rather long and bushy hair, and is a likely fellow, though he walks badly. ROBERT, 19 or 20 years old, nearly six feet high, rather thin than otherwise, with a round face and low forehead. He is black, has a deep-toned voice, peculiar eyes and large feet. His eyes appear somewhat inanimate and he shows a great deal of the white of them. His teeth are good and stand rather open.

The above mentioned reward of four hundred dollars will be given for the apprehension of said negroes, or one hundred for any one of them, if taken out of the county; or if in the county, two hundred dollars for all of them or fifty dollars for each or any one of them; provided, in either case, they or he be delivered to the subscriber, or secured in Cambridge jail, so that he shall get them or him again.

JAMES B. STEELE.
