

$600 REWARD.—Ranaway from the subscriber, living in Dorchester county, Eastern Shore of Maryland, on Saturday last, the 10th of September, instant, three Negro Men, named CLEM, DICK and JACOB. Clem is about thirty years old, five feet three or four inches high, tolerably stout, very bow-legged, and of a dark chesnut color. He has lost a part of the upper lid of one of his eyes, is left-handed, or rather can use either hand expertly, stammers and is a blacksmith. Dick, aged 36 or 37 years, about five feet five or six inches high, is also of a dark chesnut color, and bow-legged, with round shoulders and a somewhat Roman nose. JACOB is very black, about 21 years old and five feet seven or eight inches high. He is knock-kneed, with large feet, and in walking turns his toes out very much, probably one foot more than the other. His eyes are generally unusually red, particularly when he is frightened or agitated, and his eye lashes considerably curl upwards.

The above named reward of Six Hundred Dollars, will be paid for the apprehension of these negroes, if they be taken out of the county; or two hundred dollars for any one of them. But if taken in the county, three hundred dollars for all, or one hundred for each of them—Provided, in either case, that they be secured in Cambridge jail so that the owner get them again.

WM. E. HOOPER.
