

$100 Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber, living near the Trappa, Talbot county, Md., on Wednesday last, (the 1st. day of July,) a negro man, who calls himself he is about 40 or 45 years old, black complexion, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, eyes rather reddish, quick when spoken to. Gabriel is a smart active hand on a farm, and I have no doubt has made his way to to the State of Delaware, as he has a mother living near Lower Hunting Creek Mills, in Dorchester county, who, I presume, he will visit on his way to Delaware.

GABRIEL DYE,

Whoever takes up said negro, if in the county, shall receive $25; if in the State, $50. If out of the State the above reward of $100, and delivered in the Jail at Easton, so that I get him again.

JAMES PERRY.

Talbot co., Md., July 2, 1840.