

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.—

Ranaway from the subscriber, living near Upper Marlboro', Prince George's county, Md, negro man LEWIS, calls himself Lewis Camill; about 32 years of age. His clothing cannot be correctly described, as he took with him several pieces, which I am sure he will change for others; among these he took with him were a blue coat, blue waistcoat and black pantaloons. Lewis is about five feet six inches high, and well set, of a copper color; his teeth are much decayed in front, and he has a scar on one of his hands, not remembered which, occasioned by the chop of an axe. I purchased Lewis out of the estate of Mrs. Bowie, near Piscataway, in this county. Lewis has a low voice—quick and humble when spoken to. He has a father and mother belonging to Mr. Basil Hatton, living near Broad Creek. I will give the above reward if taken in the State, or District of Columbia, and $100 if taken out of the State or District of Columbia, and brought home, or secured in jail so I get him again.
