

$100 REWARD.—Ranaway from the residence of the subscriber in Balto. Co., on the 25th inst., a small black boy named AUGUSTUS, 13 or 14 years old, and easily known by a curious excrescence on the lower side of his face. He had a green jacket, corduroy pantaloons and shoes but no hat. He was frightened off by the threats of a fellow servant, and it was supposed had only hid himself for a time, as he has not however yet made his appearance, am induced to think he may have been taken off by some of the persons attending the colored camp meeting in the neighborhood which broke up the day after. Fifty dollars will be paid if taken within the State, or one hundred if taken out of it and delivered to me. se 1 d4t JNO. RIDGELY, of Hampton.
