

$50 Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on Monday, 12th inst., a negro man by the name of

JOHN BAILY.

He is about 5 feet 6 inches high, of a chestnut color, walks quite lame, and has rather a down look, with some hesitancy when spoken to. His clothes which he had on when he left were made of fulled drab col'd kersey.

A reward of fifty dollars will be given if taken out of the State, twenty-five dollars if in the State, and fifteen dollars if taken within the county and lodged in Easton jail.

EMMA FEDDEMAN.

Easton, Jan. 20, 1846—3w