

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD
—RAN AWAY from the subscriber on Tuesday night, the 27th instant, a NEGRO MAN, aged about twenty-one years, near or quite six feet high, rather spare for his height, with square shoulders. He is very black and has regular features and a pleasant smile when spoken to. About one year since he burnt the inside of his right foot which is still white and some sore. He wore a brass ring upon one finger, which one not recollected. His clothing not recollected except a blue and black checked casinet coat, half worn with small figure.

I will give the above reward if taken out of the State for the above boy if delivered in Cambridge jail free of expense, and One Hundred Dollars if taken in the County, and One Hundred and Fifty if taken out of the County and in this State if safely delivered as above. FRANCIS P. PHELPS, Elden, near Cambridge, Dorchester county, Maryland.

April 23th. 1847.
