

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.—

Ran away from the subscriber, in Miles' River Neck, Talbot county, Md., on Sunday, the 1st instant, a negro man, named TOM MADEN, about 21 years of age, five feet six or seven inches in height, and dark complexion. His face is full of pimples, and he has rather a grum look. Has had a whitlow on his right forefinger. Had on when he left: a small cloth cap, light drab thick coat, full kersey pants, considerably worn, and fine Monroe shoes.

A reward of $50 will be given if apprehended in Talbot county, $100 if taken out of the county and in the State, and $200 if taken out of the State; in either case to be delivered to me, or secured in any jail, so that I get him again.

EDWARD RAY.

Talbot county, Md., Oct. 2, 1854.
