

$50 REWARD.

PANAWAY from the subscriber on Behemia Manor, on Saturday, the 26th ult., a colored woman named

Ann Johnson,

aged about 23 or 24 years, copper complexion, had on when she ran away no shoes, domestic dress well worn, no bonnet, head tied up in a handkerchief, she formerly came from the neighborhood of Cambridge, and belonged to a man by the name of Samuel Harrington, and it is supposed she is making her way downwards to the place where she came from. Any person arresting said negro woman or placing her in jail so that I get her shall have the above reward.

WM. H. RHODES,
Chesapeake city, Md.

may 7-3t*