

$100 REWARD.

MY MAN, CHARLES SPRIGG, left my place, near Upper Marlborough, Prince George's County, Maryland, last Friday week. He is about twenty-one years of age; black; rather stout, and can at once be recognized by a scar on one cheek, received when young from the kick of a horse.—When he speaks, the muscles near the scar are contracted.

If he has not left the county, I think he is lurking near Nottingham, as he was raised on Mr. John T. Eversfield's farm, lately rented by Mr. McKee.

I will give Fifty Dollars, if he is caught in Prince George's or Anne Arundel Counties; and One Hundred Dollars, if taken elsewhere. He must be secured so that I get him again.

WILLIAM B. HILL.
