

RUNAWAY NEGROES.

WAS committed to the county jail of Dorchester; on the 6th day of October, by Samuel W. Lecompte, one of the justices of the Peace, of said county,

Four Negro Men

giving their names as

ALFRED PARKS,

JOHN WILLIAMS,

JOSEPH MORGAN,

and SOLOMON WILSON.

it is supposed they are either runaway slaves or are fugitives from justice. They say they are from Baltimore city, which place they say they left a few days ago, and were on a fishing excursion down the Bay.

Notice is hereby given that unless their masters or owners appear within sixty days from this date, prove property and pay charges, they will be discharged according to law.

ROBT. BELL.

Sheriff's Office, Cambridge, Md., Oct. 15th, 1856.