

$400

REWARD.—Ran away from on board the schooner Lewin, Captain Livingston, at Bowly's wharf, on the night of the 31st of May, JOHN FRUNY, a Negro Boy, commonly called Jack. He is a stout, well-made lad, about 18 years old, 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, rather large mouth, thick lips, and large projecting teeth, flat nose, and four near the middle of his forehead about the edge of his hair. He is dark colored—nearly black. Had on when he left a dark caenot coat and pants and a cloth cap, with white band. Four hundred dollars reward will be given for his apprehension and delivery if taken without the limits of the State of Maryland; three hundred dollars if taken without the city of Baltimore; or two hundred dollars if taken within the city, and delivered to

CROPPER & BRO.,
56 South st., Baltimore, or to
WILLIAM FRUNY,
Salisbury, Md.

1853-61*:

INATE N...