

$200 REWARD.

Ranaway from the subscriber, on the 14th inst., my negro man LEVIN, who calls himself

LEVIN TRIGGER.

He is about thirty or thirty-five years old, black, about five feet six or eight inches high, and had when he left a long beard on his chin. He shows his teeth, which are very white, a good deal when laughing. His features are thin and sharp. His clothes, except one blue and one white pair of pants, are not recollected. He has a wife at Mr. John R. Keene's, near Church Creek, and may possibly be lurking in that neighborhood. A dark bay mule, with white hairs interspersed on its body, disappeared about the same time, and it is supposed that he may have taken him off with him.

The above reward will be given if taken up out of the State; one hundred dollars if taken out of the county, and in the State; and fifty dollars if taken in the county—in either case to be lodged in Cambridge Jail.
