

$100 REWARD.

ABSCONDED again on the 1st instant, from the subscriber, a stout black fellow named JUDSON, aged thirty, about five feet seven or eight inches high. He was carried home the day before he left, after having been absent about seventeen months, during which time he was lurking in and about the neighborhoods of Piscataway and Pomonkey, as I have been informed. Judson has lost his first joint, and perhaps the second of one of his middle fingers, also has marks under his jaw occasioned by the scrofula, and wears large whiskers; he may possible go further off and change his lurking places. I will give the above reward if safely delivered to me personally, or in any jail, so that I get him again. I will likewise give a very liberal reward to any one who shall produce legal testimony against any person or persons harboring, employing, or dealing with said negro, or any of my slaves previous to this or in future, as I have been seriously injured, and my servants also, by ill-disposed persons for a considerable time past.

H. D. HATTON,
Hatton's Hill, near Piscataway, Md.