

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

—Ran away from the subscriber, on Wednesday, the 1st of May, Negro Man GREENBURY, but always called by the name of BOWSER, it being a nick-name given him from his childhood. Said Negro is twenty years old, five feet eight or ten inches high, light complexion, and would be called by many persons a Mulatto; with a full head of woolly hair, not dark in color, and a full mouth of long teeth in front; has also a down look when spoken to. Said Negro had on, when he absconded, a glaze cap; an old blue close-bodied coat; a pair of plaid trowsers, spring wear, and a pair of old brogan shoes, pretty much worn. Said Negro was seen to cross South river bridge, and on the road leading to Annapolis, the morning he left home, in the neighborhood of Mr. John Tucker's, where he has a sister residing; and has also a "other living in Washington, and is, no doubt, lurking round and about Mr. Tucker's premises, but he may have made his way to Baltimore or Washington, with a view of getting out of the State of Maryland.

I will give fifty dollars if taken in the State of Maryland or District of Columbia, and one hundred dollars if taken in any other State of the Union.

D. G. ORME,
