Mrs. Margaret Wilson

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

The other day you called and asked me to survey the Tiller lot on Old Morgnec Road. I was under the impression that it was on the north side of the road, not adjacent to the Alexander Corse Estate lot that I had previously surveyed. This is a can of worms that I choose not to be involved in.

If you recall, several years ago I tried to make heads or tails of the land belonging to Joshua Chapel, without any success. I spent some time tracing the various parcels in that area, and except for the Corse lot I found virtually nothing in the way of property descriptions. To straighten this out will take a great deal more time and effort than I care to take on.

Sincerely yours,

September 21, 2000.

Mrs. Margaret Wilson
27897 Morgnec Cut-off Road
Chestertown, Md. 21620

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

I am afraid that I do not have much information about Joshua Chapel to pass on to you.

I looked up the deeds of all of the properties in that vicinity that appear on the tax maps. There was no deed listed for the church, but that is not too surprising since it is not taxable land. However, only one deed of the many that I searched even mentions being adjacent to the church. That deed is described only as being the Jacob Cork lot of 5 acres on the south side of the road.

I understand from talking to two gentlemen that I met on the church grounds that there is a dispute concerning the lines of the Yvonne Dashiell property. Her deed (MLM 12/488) describes five parcels out of which 3 parcels were conveyed. I plotted them up and tried to orient them on an aerial photo with little success.

After much digging in the court house and plotting deed descriptions, my conclusion is this. First, I have no idea what the church owns, and, second, I cannot at this point determine the lines of the Dashiell property. If any of your neighbors have any information that will help, I will be glad to pursue this at no cost to the church.

Sincerely yours,
